Exhibition - "Life is Beautiful"

Art lovers, we invite you to the exhibition "Life is Beautiful" organized by the Artem Association.

The aim and mission of the association is to support the development and promotion of Slovak fine arts and culture. In particular, it supports the creative work of young artists and their artistic growth. It was founded by Prof. Ľuboslav Moza. This well-known art theorist and historian, an expert in fine arts and academic lecturer, has been promoting Slovak visual art for years — he has curated over 500 group exhibitions and 400 solo exhibitions in Slovakia and abroad (Germany, Poland, Hungary, Austria, Italy, and others). During the exhibition, works by artists from the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Austria, and Ukraine will be displayed, including Silvia Petrová (Slovakia), Svitlana Dudenko (Ukraine), and Waltraut Chimani (Austria). All paintings exhibited at the event will be available for purchase.

"What Animates the Space"

Initiation into the Liturgical Space will be the main theme of this year's conference conducted by the "Sacristans' School" of the Sisters of St. Jadwiga the Queen, Servants of Christ Present.

The aim of the conference is to introduce participants to the understanding of the permanent elements of liturgical space — their role and function — as well as ways of highlighting them through changeable arrangements, particularly with flowers. The conference will include practical tips and guidelines.

The event is addressed to priests, consecrated persons, sacristans, church assistants, florists, and all those directly involved in the preparation of liturgical space, as well as to anyone who wishes to gain a deeper understanding of the spiritual dimension of the liturgy. The conference will be led by Fr. Bartosz Wronikowski and Sr. Anna Hyszko CHR

Conference - Contemporary Dilemmas in Sacral Paintings
The conference "Contemporary Dilemmas in Sacred Painting" is an invitation for everyone who wants to better understand the role of art in the Church — both creators and recipients.

Does sacred art need a new language? Participants of the conference organized by the Academy Faith-Culture-Science during this year's Sacroexpo will seek answers to this question. The meeting will provide a space for reflection on the current condition of sacred painting and its role in the Church.

Speakers:

- Karolina Staszak (art critic): Do we need to "paint Catholicism anew"?
- Fr. Dr. Wojciech Surówka (philosopher and expert on Orthodox icons): Jerzy Nowosielski - Mystic or False Prophet?

Author's Meeting with Fr. Witold Kawecki "Why Poles Love Italy. Discovering the Cultural, Artistic and Spiritual Treasures of Italy"

We cordially invite you to a conversation with Fr. Prof. Witold Kawecki – a Redemptorist, distinguished expert on culture and art, and lecturer at Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw. He is a figure who has long inspired others to discover the world through the prism of beauty and spirituality.

Fr. Prof. Kawecki is the Director of the Institute of Knowledge about Culture, the founder of the Theology of Culture specialization, and the author of over 150 publications devoted to the relationship between the Church and culture. As a translator, retreat leader, and speaker, he has traveled to many parts of the world, sharing his knowledge and passion. He collaborates with the media, and his stories attract those who wish to see more — not only through the eyes of a tourist, but also as a sensitive recipient of art.
