in TARGI KIELCE

For over 15 years, the funeral and cemetery industry has been brought together for Necroexpo held at the Kielce exhibition and congress centre. Necroexpo is one-stop-shop for producers and service providers, the funeral business sector's most prominent entities. 2019's event hosted 105 companies from 11 countries from around the world, and the exhibition attracted over 1,500 people. The list of exhibitors and the presence of special guests confirm that Kielce is THE CAPITAL OF THE FUNERAL INDUSTRY. Ever since the first 2005's edition, the expo has doubled the number of exhibitors, tripled the size of the exhibition space. What is more - the number of visitors has increased more than four times. In this part of Europe, Targi Kielce is the undisputed leader among funeral trade fair organisers.

Necroexpo has always been accompanied by a rich and diversified program of conferences, trainings and presentations. The expo opening ceremony, as well as the awarding ceremony of medals and distinctions, host guests of honour, famous personages from the world of politics, media and the institutions supporting the funeral industry. The exhibition witnesses the official hand-overs of products as well as the public signing of letters of intent. This is where companies celebrate their jubilees organising official functions. The expo guests make the best of this opportunity using special promotions and discounts.

Almost 16 years of experience in organising funeral trade fairs, eight successful editions and 92% of positive opinions in addition to declarations to join the upcoming event. The facts and figures prove that Necroexpo is the most important industry event in our country.

Necroexpo 2021 will be enhanced with a rich and diversified program of conferences, trainings and presentations in addition to:
