Let's build our future today!

The International Infrastructure Constructions Expo - NEW INFRASTRUCTURE offers the opportunity to exchange experiences and delve into the heart of the problem; this knowledge mine offers discussions and meetings which feature industry specialists, representatives of the most important construction companies and infrastructure managers. Not only does the event feature innovative products, this is also the presentation platform for modern machines and technological solutions, the home for conferences crafted around industry needs.

„Many companies find that the trade fair offers the opportunity to regain the market positions they have lost, to recover after the economic collapse. This is also a perfect chance for those looking for a new business idea.”

Targi Kielce President of Board - Andrzej Mochoń

The NEW INFRASTRUCTURE Expo

- the most important meeting for the infrastructure-construction sector
- the opportunity to become familiar with a wide range of cutting-edge machines, devices and technological solutions. One-stop shop for the whole industry
- dynamic show-presentations of construction machines on a unique demonstration arena
- the right place to establish cooperation with new contractors, partners, media
- the chance to obtain immediate feedback about the products on show and gain inspiration for your business
- the occasion to put new products on the market - your product première in the limelight and all-year long promotion
- the place to meet partners and companies to cooperate with, the chance to develop new and better solutions
- efficient expo organisation, professional service

Early-bird registration is now available.
The trade shows offer:

- a chance for your company to recover its market position after a slowdown period, boost its further development
- the opportunity to show that your company keeps going strong - the firm has survived the crisis and comes back with new solutions
- the possibility of renewing and cultivate relations lost during the pandemic as well as to find new business leads
- the right place and time to win new business partners, suppliers and customers back and keep working in a new, changed reality
- the chance to outrun the competition who has not yet decided to return and showcase at the expo

We have been a part of the trade show ever since it very beginning. The expo is a true holiday and fiesta for the whole business sector. Kielce is the road-engineering capital of Poland.
