CONTROL STOM

returns in spring 2022!

Two consecutive editions were postponed because of the pandemic. The Fair of Industrial Measuring Technology CONTROL-STOM returns to the original spring date, a permanent fixture in the business calendar.

We look forward to seeing you at Targi Kielce's trade show held from 5 and 7 April 2022. The 2021 exhibition, which was held together with other industry-centred events, attracted nearly 10,000 business insiders.

Therefore, it is no surprise to see exhibitors' enormous satisfaction with the business talks and B2B meetings. Consequently, the industry representatives' feedback is positive. They regard the event as one of the most crucial measurement industry shows in Central and Eastern Europe.
