Sacroexpo 2025: A celebration of liturgy and sacred art

The 26th edition of Sacroexpo once again confirmed its position as one of Europe's leading events for the religious industry, fully meeting the expectations of those who appreciate sacred art and innovation. Hosted at Targi Kielce, the exhibition attracted thousands of visitors over three inspiring days.

Nearly 200 exhibitors from 10 countries presented a wide range of church and parish equipment, devotional items, Christian-themed board games, Catholic publications, and pilgrimage offers to major religious destinations. A special highlight was the showcase of modern technologies designed for parishes, including cemetery management systems, online fundraising tools, and mobile applications for locating Masses and religious services.

Art has always been a defining pillar of Sacroexpo. This year, visitors immersed themselves in the Sacred Art Zone, the renowned Drapikowski Studio Exhibition, and the Regina Poloniae showcase of Papal Madonnas. For their outstanding contributions to culture, Wydawnictwo Jedność and Kraków-based poet Adam Ziemianin received the prestigious Per Artem Ad Deum Medal, awarded under the patronage of the Vatican's Dicastery for Culture and Education. Sacroexpo continues to serve as a vibrant platform where tradition meets innovation, providing a unique space for reflection on the role of art and spirituality in contemporary life.

Liturgical spirit at the forefront

A major debut this year was the conference “The Spirit of the Liturgy as the Spirit of the Church”, organized to mark the 20th anniversary of Benedict XVI’s election. Opened by Bishop Jan Piotrowski, the event highlighted the formative and unifying role of the liturgy.

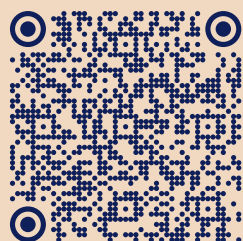

Liturgical spirit at the forefront

Renowned theologians and scholars including Fr. Dr. Jan Strumiłowski, Fr. Dr. Wojciech Surówka, Dr. Paweł Milcarek, and Fr. Prof. Marek Lis enriched the discussions. The conference was co-organized by the Diocesan Museum in Kielce and the Ratzinger Studies Centre in Bydgoszcz.

Additionally, the Sacristans' School, led by the Sisters of St. Jadwiga the Queen, provided practical training for clergy and laypersons involved in liturgical service.

This year's art program featured works by contemporary talents such as Borys Fiodorowicz, Piotr Barszczowski, Sylwia Perczak, and Aleksander Grzybek, curated by Art in House Auction House and Gallery.

Sacred Art Exhibitions

The Drapikowski Studio's "Pilgrims of Hope" exhibition showcased masterpieces including jeweled vestments for the Black Madonna of Częstochowa and Marian monstrances created for Fatima and Medjugorje.

The Regina Poloniae Exhibition presented papally crowned Madonnas revered across Polish sanctuaries. Iconographer Maria Pilch described the display as a heartfelt tribute to John Paul II and Benedict XVI, honoring their deep devotion to the Virgin Mary. Visitors also had opportunities for contemplation in the iconographic oratory hosted by Wesola 54 Pastoral Centre and in a special exhibition commemorating Benedict XVI.

Per Artem Ad Deum – 20 years of Tribute to Art

This year marked the 20th anniversary of the Per Artem Ad Deum awards. The 2025 laureates, Wydawnictwo Jedność and poet Adam Ziemianin, were celebrated at a prestigious gala. “Thanks to this award, our books become works of art,” said Fr. Leszek Skorupa, Director of Jedność.

The evening concluded with a moving performance by the ensemble U Studni, featuring poetry by Adam Ziemianin, admired for his spiritually rich and lyrical reflections.
