

Secure, compliant and reliable logistics for Government & Defence

ITO Global Logistics supports government, defence and customers with secure and compliant transport solutions. We specialise in defence, all classes of Dangerous Goods – especially explosives and radioactive materials –, security-sensitive transports, Protective security and armed/unarmed transport escort services for sensitive and defence-related cargo and close coordination with authorities.

Core capabilities

- International air, road and multi-modal logistics
- Government & Defence supply chains
- Cross-border operations in complex environments
- Coordination with authorities and institutions
- handling sensitive and confidential information
- Protective security and armed/unarmed transport escort services

Selected use cases

- International transport operations for governmental and defence customers
- Cross-border road and air transport supporting Eastern Europe and Ukraine
- Security-escorted transports of sensitive defence goods
- Logistics support for institutional and international organisations in complex environments

Information security & compliance

Information security is an integral part of our daily operations. ITO works aligned with ISO 27001 standards to ensure structured handling of sensitive information, controlled access and clear responsibilities. This is not a marketing feature – it is our operational baseline.

Why ITO

- ✓ Extensive hands-on experience in Government & Defence logistics operations
- ✓ Operational teams with substantial field experience in complex and sensitive transports
- ✓ Proven track record in coordinating with national and international authorities
- ✓ Long-standing contractual collaborations involving armed forces, government organizations (GOs), non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and the defense industry