A full-page image of Superman in his classic blue suit with a red cape and yellow belt, holding the Earth in his right hand. The Earth is a large, textured sphere with a prominent red and orange ring around its equator. The background is a blue sky with white clouds, and the tops of several city buildings are visible at the bottom. The entire image is framed by a thin orange border. There are also large, semi-transparent orange and purple circular shapes in the corners of the slide.
